Section 1. The objects or purposes of USJJO shall be to --

- A. Coordinate and develop athletic activity;
- B. Promote and support athletic activities involving the United States and foreign nations;
- C. Promote and encourage public participation in physical fitness;
- D. Assist organizations and persons concerned with sports in the development of athletic programs for athletes;
- E. Provide for the swift resolution of conflicts and disputes involving athletes, and amateur sports organizations and protect the opportunity of any athlete, coach trainer, manager, administrator, or official to participate in athletic competition;
- F. Foster the development of athletic facilities for use by Ju-Jitsu athletes and to assist in making the existing athletic facilities available for use by Ju-Jitsu athletes;

- G. Provide and coordinate technical information on physical training, equipment design, coaching, and performance analysis;
- H. Encourage and support research, development, and dissemination of information in the area of sports medicine and sports safety;
- I. Encourage and provide assistance to athletic activities for women;
- J. Encourage and provide assistance to athletic programs and competition for handicapped individuals, including, where feasible, the expansion of opportunities for meaningful participation by handicapped individuals in programs of Ju-Jitsu competition for able-bodied individuals;
- K. Encourage and provide assistance to athletes of racial and ethnic minorities for the purpose of eliciting the participation of such minorities in athletic activities in which they are underrepresented;
- L. To sponsor and encourage participation of Ju-Jitsu Championships on the regional, national, and international levels.

Article V -- Powers and Jurisdiction

Section 1. USJJO shall have perpetual succession and power to --

- A. Sue and be sued; make contracts; acquire, hold, and dispose of real and personal property as may be necessary for its corporate purposes; accept gifts, legacies, and devises in furtherance of its corporate purposes; borrow money to carry out its corporate purposes, issue notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness therefor and secure the same by mortgage, subject in each case to the laws of the United States or the State Organization; provide financial assistance to any organization, athlete or association, other than a corporation organized for profit, in furtherance of the purposes of USJJO;
- B. Approve and revoke membership in USJJO; adopt and alter a corporate seal; establish and maintain offices for the conduct of the affairs of USJJO; publish a newspaper, magazine, or other publication consistent with its corporate purposes; and to do any and all acts necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of USJJO;
- C. Operate exclusively for public health, safety and charitable purposes, including for such purposes, making of distributions to corporations, trusts, community chests, funds or foundations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law); In addition to the foregoing, this corporation may aid, assist, and support with contributions of money, property or otherwise, other organizations organized and operated exclusively to foster national or international sports competition, or for charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes;
- D. Engage in any lawful act or activity authorized by the Ohio Code, and to have and to exercise all rights and powers that are now or may hereafter be granted to a corporation;
- E. Amend its Constitution and By-Laws in a manner not inconsistent with the laws of the United States of America or the State Organization;
- F. Establish and maintain a uniform test of eligibility and uniform rules for the government of all Ju-Jitsu within its jurisdiction; including, but not limited to, the adoption of rules and regulations governing JuJitsu competition, judging, and the awarding of appropriate Ju-Jitsu credentials to deserving individuals. In furtherance of this objective, to sanction and host Ju-Jitsu seminars, camps, and other activities designed to develop Ju-Jitsu athletes, judges, and officials;
- G. Promote and encourage educational programs to inform people of the virtues of good sportsmanship and sportsmanlike conduct, of the cultural aspects of Ju-Jitsu athletic activities and of the benefits of physical fitness and participation in amateur Ju-Jitsu activities;
- H. Establish qualifications of membership, classification of members and categories for both voting and non-voting members and participatory members. In doing so, USJJO shall provide equal opportunity to athletes, coaches, trainers, managers, administrators, and officials to participate in athletic competition without discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin and with fair notice and opportunity for a hearing to any athletes, coaches, trainers, managers, administrators, and officials before declaring such individual ineligible to participate.

Section 2. The foregoing shall be construed as objects, purposes, and power, and the enumeration thereof shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers now or hereafter conferred on this corporation by the laws of the State Organization.

Section 3. The objects, purposes, functions, and powers specified herein shall, except as otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any clause or paragraph of these Articles. The objects, purposes, functions, and powers specified in each of the clauses or paragraphs of these Constitution and By-laws shall be regarded as independent objects, purposes, functions, or powers.

Section 4. The corporation may in its regulations confer powers, not in conflict with law, on its directors in addition to the foregoing and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred on them by statute.

Section 5. USJJO is autonomous in its governance and independently determines and controls all matters central to such governance. USJJO shall not delegate such determination and control, and shall remain free from outside restraint.

Section 6. USJJO membership is open --

- A. To any individual who is an athlete, coach, trainer, manager, administrator, or official active in the sport of Ju-Jitsu;
- B. To any amateur sports organization which conducts programs in the sport of Ju-Jitsu.

Section 7. USJJO shall provide an equal opportunity to athletes, coaches, trainers, managers, administrators, and officials to participate in athletic competition without discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, age, sex, or national origin and with fair notice and opportunity for a hearing to any athletes, coaches, trainers, managers, administrators, and official before declaring such individual ineligible to participate.

Section 8. USJJO shall be governed by a Board of Directors whose members are selected without regard to race, color, religion, national origin or sex;

Section 9. USJJO shall provide for the prompt and equitable resolution of grievances of its members through the exercise of due process proceedings. Such procedures shall be specifically set forth in the Bylaws of USJJO.

Article VI -- Earnings

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its member, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Constitution and By-laws of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on:

- A. By a corporation exempt from the Federal Income Tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or
- B. By a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

The purposes of this corporation do not include pecuniary gain or profit to the members thereof. Consequently, none of its net earnings shall inure to the benefit of any private member or individual; provided, however, that this provision shall not be construed so as to prevent reasonable compensation for services actually rendered to this corporation.

Article VII -- Distribution

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, literary, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Article VIII -- Indemnification

Section 1. USJJO shall indemnify each of its present or former directors, officers, employees, or official representatives, or any person who is or was serving another corporation or other entity in any capacity at the request of USJJO, against all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person (including, but not limited to, judgments, costs, and counsel fees) in connection with the defense of any pending or threatened litigation to which such person is, or is threatened to be made, a party because such person is or was serving in such a capacity. This right of indemnification shall also apply to expenses of litigation which is compromised or settled, including amounts paid in settlement, if USJJO shall approve such settlements as provided in section 2 hereof. Such person shall be entitled to be indemnified if he/she acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, and not opposed to the best interests of USJJO. The termination of any litigation by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, and not opposed to the best interests of USJJO.

Section 2. Any amount payable as indemnification under this Article shall be determined and paid by USJJO pursuant to a determination by a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors, consisting of those members who have not incurred expenses in connection with the litigation for which indemnification is sought, that such person has met the standard of conduct set forth in this Article. If no such non-interested Board members are available, such determination shall be made by either the General Counsel in a written opinion, or by majority vote of the USJJO Congress.

Section 3. The right of indemnification under this article shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, all other rights to which such person may be entitled.

Section 4. Any expenses incurred by such person in connection with the defense of any litigation may be paid by USJJO in advance of a final disposition of such litigation upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay such amount if it is determined under section 2 hereof that such person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article.

Section 5. The Board of Directors may, at its discretion, authorize the purchase of insurance on behalf of any persons indemnifiable under this Article. Such insurance may include provisions for indemnification of such persons for expenses of a kind not subject to indemnification under this Article.

Article IX -- Office

The principal office of the corporation will be the address of the President or Treasurer.

Article X -- Official Emblem and Seal

The official Emblem and Seal shall be that adopted by this corporation.

Section 4. Nominations: Prior to August 1 of any election year, the chairman of the Nominations and Elections committee shall request from members of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION nominations for officers which are to be elected at the next annual meeting. Nominations must be accompanied by a written acceptance of the nominee and a brief biography stating the nominee's qualifications for office. Thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting, the names of all nominees and their biographies shall be submitted to all delegates by the nominating committee. Additional nominations may be made from the floor of the Congress.

Section 5. Elections: The Officers will be elected from among the members of the Congress who have served a minimum of two consecutive years on the Congress by a majority vote of the voting members of the Congress of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION at the annual meeting. Elections of the Officers will be conducted by written ballot under the supervision of the Nominating and Elections Committee at the annual meeting. If there is only one candidate for a particular office, the vote may be taken by a voice vote. The Nominating and Elections Committee shall make provisions for runoff elections.

Section 6. Vacancies: In the event of death, resignation, or incapacity of office, the various duties of the officers shall be assumed until the next annual meeting of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION as follows:

- A. President -- The Vice-President, or if he is unavailable, the General Secretary shall assume the duties of the President.

Article VIII -- Amendments to Constitution and By-Laws

Section 1. Presentation: A proposed amendment may be submitted only by:

- A. A district sports organization member only after approval at one of its meetings;
- B. The Elective Officers;
- C. The Board of Directors,
- D. USJJO Club;
- E. The Chairperson of the Law and Legislation Committee, subject to the approval of that Committee before presentation to the Board of Directors for adoption;
- F. The Chairperson of the Finance Committee, subject to the approval of that Committee before presentation to the Board of Directors for adoption;
- G. The Chairperson of the Registration Committee, subject to the approval of that Committee before presentation to the Board of Directors for adoption;
- H. The Rules Committee subject to the approval of that Committee before presentation to the Board of Directors for adoption.

Section 2. Time and Publication: A proposed amendment to the Constitution and By-Laws may not be adopted by the Congress of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION unless it first has been postmarked to the General Secretary in writing and at least one hundred days before the annual meeting of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION at which it is to be submitted; it shall be forwarded immediately to the Chairperson of Law and Legislation; a report of all proposed amendments must be mailed by the General Secretary to each duly certified board member.

Section 3. Form of Publication: A proposed amendment must be submitted to the General Secretary in such a form as to show the entire section, subsection, or paragraph, as the case may be, as it will read if adopted, with any changes in language underlined if new and if deleted by:

- A. Strike-over dashes if the material to be stricken is shown, or

B. By Z-slant line over the entire material to be stricken if lengthy.

Section 4. Urgent Amendment: If deemed by it to be urgent and necessary, the Law and Legislation Committee may present an amendment for consideration at any time during a meeting of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION. If time permits, a copy of the amendment shall be made available to each person present who is entitled to vote on amendments.

Section 5. Consideration of Law and Legislation Committee: Proposed amendments must be submitted to and reported upon by the Law and Legislation Committee.

Section 6. Modification: An amendment may be modified in any manner by USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION while it is under consideration, but such modification must be germane to the subject matter of the proposed amendment.

Section 7. Adoption: A proposed amendment may be adopted only upon the affirmative vote of not fewer than 2/3 of the members of the Congress present and voting. Any proposed "urgent amendment" must be approved by unanimous vote by those members of the Board of Directors present and voting.

Section 8. Effective Date: All amendments approved as prescribed become effective January 1 of the year following the adoption unless otherwise specified at the time of adoption.

Section 9. Multiple Amendments: If more than one amendment has been proposed on the same subject matter, and there are substantive differences between such amendments, the Board of Directors, may, after due consideration of such proposals, adopt a compromise of substance as well as form; and if the adoption of the amendment as proposed or amended or compromised is inconsistent or in conflict with other parts of the Constitution or By-Laws, the Board of Directors may adopt conforming amendments appropriate to the case.

Section 10. Saving Clause: Failure of literal compliance with any provisions of the Constitution or By-Laws in respect of dates and times of notice, or the sending or receipt of the same, or errors in phraseology of notice of proposals, which in the judgment of the members at meetings held do not cause substantial injury to the rights of members shall not invalidate the actions or proceedings of the members at any meeting.

Section 11. E-Mail Vote: Amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws may also be held pursuant to Article VIII of the By-Laws provided that the proposed amendments are distributed to the members, together with a statement of the reasons for the mail vote. Members will have 30 days from the date of mailing of the amendments to file with the USJJO written comments for or against the amendments. Thereafter, the proposed amendments and vote of recommendation along with any data, views, or arguments submitted by the members which are deemed pertinent and appropriate by the Chairperson of the Law and Legislation Committee shall be distributed at least 15 days prior to the last date at which votes will be received and counted.

Article IX – e-Mail Vote

The Congress and the Executive Committee shall have the power to transact their respective business by email, fax, video conference, or telegraphic vote, if in the judgment of the President the urgency of the case requires such action. Such votes are handled in the following manner:

Section 1. Board of Directors and Congress:

- A. Scope In the interval between two annual meetings of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION, any action that can be lawfully taken at a special meeting can be also taken by email or teleconference vote.
- B. Scheduling Upon the written request of the President or ten percent of the members of Congress, or 20 percent of the members of the Board of Directors, any specific matter or question must be submitted to e-mail vote to the appropriate board by the General Secretary.
- C. Majority: To be effective, when the Constitution and By-Laws calls for a majority, or when 2/3 called for, the vote of all Congress members voting must be recorded.
- D. Procedure:

- A. The General Secretary of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION e-mails to each Congress member a clear statement of the question to be voted on, with the request that each member send his vote to the General Secretary within 72 hours after notification.
 - B. If the Board deems it necessary, a vote can be taken by the above email. In such cases the vote shall close in seventy-two (72) hours.
- E. Notification
- 1. At any time that the General Secretary receives sufficient votes to carry or reject the proposition, he may announce the result.
 - 2. Within five (5) days after the closing of the vote, General Secretary emails to each Congress member a copy of the question(s) and the result of the vote as follows: The number voting for, the number voting against, a statement of whether the proposition was carried or defeated.
- F. Filing: In every instance of an email vote, the General Secretary preserves the ballot of each member in the files for a period of one year.

Article X -- International Membership

Section 1. The USJJO may join with other organizations from other countries in an international organization.

Article XI -- Dues and Assessments

The dues and assessments for various classes of membership shall be those adopted by the Board of Directors. Failure to pay all dues shall suspend all membership privileges of the delinquent members, including representation on the Board of Directors, Congress, and on all committees, until all arrearages are paid.

Article XII -- Grievances; Board of Review; Hearings

Section 1. Petition: Any member of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION dissatisfied with or aggrieved by any interpretation, action, or decision of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION relating to any matter within the cognizance of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION, including any disputes arising under Article XIV of these Bylaws, or alleging a violation of the Constitution and Bylaws of the USOC or the Amateur Sports Act of 1978, may seek review from the adverse determination by timely submission of a written petition to the General Secretary of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION (but not more than six (6) months after the effective date of the said interpretation, action, or decision in question). Such petition shall state the grievance of the petitioner and/or cite the error committed, specify the interpretation, action or decision to review, contain a statement of the relevant facts, recite the relief requested and be accompanied by the record, if any, of all proceedings relating to the grievance, including any documents to be considered on review and a copy of the adverse decision, if rendered in writing. If any respondents are named in the petition, the General Secretary shall provide a copy of the petition, together with any accompanying documents, to each respondent within 10 days after receiving the petition. Each respondent may file a written response to the petition with the General Secretary, and shall provide a copy of any such response to the petitioner, at any time prior to the hearing referred to below in Section 2.

Section 2. Board of Review: Within 15 days after a petition has been received by the General Secretary, the President shall appoint a Board of Review to consider the petition. The Board of Review shall consist of at least 3 but not more than 10 disinterested members of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION. Any or all of the members of the Board of Review may be members of the Board of Directors, and at least twenty percent (20%) of the members of the Board of Review shall be Athletes as defined in Article I, Section 2, Part E of these Bylaws. The Board of Review shall set a date, time and place for a hearing to consider the petition as expeditiously as possible (but not more than 45 days after the filing of the petition) and shall inform all parties concerning such date, time, and place. The board of Review may attempt to resolve the dispute informally to the satisfaction of all parties prior to the date set for the hearing and may implement any resolution agreed upon by all parties.

Section 3. Hearings: At any hearing conducted pursuant to Section 2 above, all parties shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present oral or written evidence, to cross-examine witnesses, and to present such factual or legal claims as desired. All parties may be represented by counsel. A record of the hearing, which may be a stenographic record, an audio or video tape, or a summary record of the proceedings, shall be made by the hearing panel, and the record shall be made available to each interested party upon request and payment therefor. The rules of evidence shall not be strictly enforced, but rules of evidence generally accepted in administrative proceedings shall be applicable. The burden of proof shall be upon the petitioner, who shall also initially have the burden of going forward with the evidence. Upon completion of the presentation of the petitioner's evidence, the respondent, if there is one, may move to dismiss for failure to sustain the burden of proof. If such motion to dismiss is denied, the respondent shall then have the burden of going forward with evidence in opposition to the petition and in support of its position.

Section 4. Decision: A final and binding decision (subject to appeal as provided below in Section 6 or the right to arbitration as provided below in Section 8 or in Section 2 of Article XIV) shall be rendered by the Board of Review (based on the vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Review who attended the hearing) within 75 days after the date the petition was filed with the General Secretary. The decision shall be communicated to all parties in writing. Petitions previously considered and decided upon by a Board of Review shall not be reopened for consideration by the same of another Board of Review except by direction of the Board of Directors upon a showing of sufficient cause.

Section 5. Powers of Board: A Board of Review shall have the power and authority to take any action and provide any relief, not contrary to the Constitution or Bylaws of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a Board of Review may:

- A. Impose and enforce penalties for any violation of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION rules or regulations;
- B. Consider the eligibility and conduct of an athlete and determine the right to compete;
- C. Vacate, modify, sustain, or reverse any mandate or order properly submitted for review or remand the matter for further action;
- D. Investigate any election impropriety or cause for removal and take corrective action;
- E. Interpret any provision of the Constitution or By-Laws of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION;
- F. Review any revocation, suspension, or reinstatement of membership to assure due process, and;
- G. Relieve a person of the effect of his commission of any act or acts by reason of which he would cease to be eligible to compete as an amateur. This may be done by the Board of Review only when the nature (not consequence) of the act or acts was inadvertent, or caused by excusable error, or if the act or acts were committed in an event in which there was at the time of commission no general competition by amateurs, or if the act or acts were made obligatory by military authority.

Section 6. Appeal: Any party to a hearing conducted by the Board of Review may appeal a decision of a Board of Review to the Board of Directors by filing a written statement of appeal with the General Secretary within 30 days after the decision of the Board of Review. An appeal shall be accepted for the Review by the Board of Directors only if two-thirds of all the members of the Board of Directors vote to accept the appeal within 18 months after the decision being appealed was rendered by the Board of Review. Upon review of any decision of a Board of Review by the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors may uphold or overturn the decision of the Board of Review or remand the matter to the Board of Review for further consideration.

Section 7. Reinstatement: A petition for reinstatement to eligible status can be acted upon at any time by the Board of Review, subject to ratification by the Congress at an annual meeting of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION, or at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. A two-thirds vote of those members of the Congress present and voting is necessary to ratify reinstatement.

Article XIII -- Suspension and Expulsion

Section 1. Suspension or Expulsion: The Board of Directors shall have the right to suspend, for a definite or indefinite period of time, depending upon circumstances or, to expel a member, delegate, or alternate delegate, registered athlete, coach, manager, member of any committee or member, or anyone participating in the activities of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION in any capacity whatsoever, when such person who by neglect of duty or by conduct tends to impair his usefulness as a member or delegate of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION, and which is detrimental to the objectives, programs, or ideals of

USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION, or who has contravened any of the Constitution or By-Laws or rules or regulations of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION, or who, by his conduct at a meeting or at a meet, either practice or competitive, of any of the sports, of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION, has acted in a manner which tends to bring disrepute upon the USA Ju-Jitsu Organization.

The procedures to be taken in reference to such suspension or expulsion shall be as follows:

- A. The person charged shall be notified, in writing, sent to his or her last known address by either certified mail or registered mail, return receipt requested, of the charges against him or her in detail, or of the circumstances which the charging authority believes require answers, explanation, or clarification. Such charges are to be heard and decided by the Board of Directors. The hearing shall be held and decision rendered no later than seventy-five (75) days from the date of notification to the person charged. The written statement of charges shall also set out the penalties which may ensue if such charges are proved; the statement shall contain a date at which time a hearing will be had, with the request that the person charged shall appear before the Board of Directors with the right to have counsel of his own choice to represent him at the hearing; the written statement to the person charged shall set a date of hearing not less than thirty (30) days after the date of mailing of such notification with the demand that the person charged shall answer in writing, to the General Secretary of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION of the charges set forth in such written statement with such answers to be delivered to the General Secretary by either certified mail or registered mail, return receipt requested, no later than ten (10) days prior to the date of hearing.
- B. If any proposed suspension or expulsion will affect the participation in an athletic competition that is so scheduled that compliance with regular procedures would not be likely to produce a decision soon enough to do justice to the affected parties, then the elected officers of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION, and the chairpersons of the Law and Legislation Committee and the Registration Committee are authorized, upon 48 hours notice, or such lesser time as the circumstances may dictate, to hear and decide any such proposed suspension or expulsion.

By 2/3 vote of this group the individual or entity charged may be suspended from participating in any activities of USA JUJITSU ORGANIZATION whatsoever after such notice and hearing as time and circumstances may reasonably dictate. The hearing may be conducted by telephone conference if necessary, but in any event under such circumstances as to fully protect rights of procedural due process of the individual or entity charged. The notice to be given to the individual or entity charged may be oral, in writing, or by mailgram, but shall in any instance contain all that required of the notice set forth in sub-paragraph A of this Section 2.

If an aggrieved party shall then demand further hearing on the charges, such hearing shall be held in accordance with the provisions and procedures set forth in sub-paragraph A of this Section 2.

- C. The Board of Directors may assign any case or matter within the provisions of this Article to a Board of Review to take original jurisdiction.

Section 2. Refusal to Testify. Any person who, after having been properly requested to do so, fails, without adequate reason, or refuses to appear and testify before any hearing held pursuant to this Article, or to answer any question pertaining to the subject matter of the hearing including the eligibility status of the individual under investigation, may be suspended from competition or be subject to such other penalties or discipline as may be proper, until such time as he has purged himself from his failure or refusal. The same shall also apply to any complainant, dissatisfied petitioner, or unsuccessful party to an appeal who fails or refuses to pay the expenses which may have been assessed against him pursuant to any proceeding held pursuant to this Article.

Section 3. Hearing. The provisions of Section 3, Article XII shall apply to all hearings held pursuant to this Article XIV. Any decision made by the Board of Directors following a hearing held pursuant to Article XIII, Section 1, Part A shall be final, and any controversy so decided shall not be reconsidered by a Board of Review pursuant to Article XII.

Section 4. Notice To Athletes In each case where a notice is mailed to a registered athlete, it is sufficient to mail the notice, addressed to him at the residence given in his application for registration; or, if he has filed with the Board of Review a written notice of change of residence, then at such changed address.
